BYLAWS OF
THE MID-ATLANTIC AFRICAN VIOLET SOCIETY

Adopted November 3, 1991
Amended November 13, 1993
Amended November 16, 1996
Amended October 26, 2002

ARTICLE I - NAME AND AFFILIATION

SECTION 1. NAME. This organization shall be known as the Mid-Atlantic African Violet Society (MAAVS).

SECTION 2. AFFILIATION. MAAVS shall be affiliated with the African Violet Society of America, Inc. (AVSA) and shall support its objectives and rules.

ARTICLE II - OBJECTIVES

SECTION 1. NONPROFIT. MAAVS shall be and exist as a nonprofit organization.

SECTION 2. OBJECTIVES. The objectives of MAAVS shall be:

- a. To afford a beneficial association of persons interested in the African violet (Saintpaulia);
- b. To stimulate a widespread interest in the propagation and culture of African violets;
- c. To provide opportunities for fellowship and friendship among and between all member clubs and individual members;
- d. To bring to the public through the society's publications information concerning African violets, its culture, and propagation;
- e. To provide meetings where African violets are exhibited (to stimulate the interest of this plant) that provide a forum where interested persons can be informed of all aspects of the horticulture of the African violet both by means of informed speakers and experts or by general discussion among those in attendance; and,
- f. To further the study of the African violet through contributions to educational organizations engaged in its study.

ARTICLE III - MEMBERSHIP

SECTION 1. ELIGIBILITY. Any individual interested in African violets shall be eligible for membership in MAAVS.

SECTION 2. CLASSES. There shall be five (5) classes of membership in MAAVS, namely:

- a. Individual, which shall be any one person.
- b. Joint, which shall be any one person residing in the same household as a person holding any other class of membership. A joint member shall not receive any mailings, but shall have all other privileges of an individual member by paying the supplemental dues as determined by the Board of Directors.
- c. Affiliate, which shall be any group interested in African violets, may affiliate with MAAVS upon payment of the dues for such affiliation.
 1. PRIVILEGES. Each affiliate group shall select one (1) of its members to the Board of Directors. The person so elected must also be a member of MAAVS. Upon payment of the annual dues, each affiliate shall receive a membership card and one (1) copy of all publications. These are sent to the Affiliate Director.
 2. VOTING STATUS. Affiliates have no voice or vote in meetings, and no member of an affiliate may use the group's affiliation for individual privileges. However, an affiliate's representative to the Board of Directors shall have one (1) vote during Board of Directors meetings.
 3. REVOCATION. The Board of Directors, subject to approval by the membership, can revoke the membership of affiliation for just cause, but no individual shall lose their membership because of the loss of a group's affiliation.
- d. Commercial, which shall be any person or firm that advertises to sell African violet plants and/or leaf cuttings, or that manufactures or advertises for sale supplies or other merchandise related to the growing of African violets on a full-time basis and/or are considered or called "commercial". A commercial member holding an honorary life membership shall pay the annual difference between individual and the commercial membership fees.

e. Honorary Life, which shall be any one person awarded a life membership for outstanding service and shall be exempt from annual dues. No more than two (2) honorary life memberships may be awarded during any one (1) calendar year. Candidates for honorary life membership shall be approved by a majority vote of the Executive Committee. A recommendation signed by at least twenty (20) members, in good standing, may propose a candidate for honorary life membership to the Executive Committee for approval.

SECTION 3. MEMBERSHIP VOTE. Each paid-to-date and each honorary life membership shall entitle the holder to voice and vote in the business meetings.

SECTION 4. REVOCATION. The Board of Directors, subject to approval by the membership, may revoke any membership for just cause.

ARTICLE IV - DUES

SECTION 1. DUES. The amount of dues for each class of membership and for group affiliation shall be determined by the Board of Directors, subject to approval by the membership. No increase shall exceed fifty percent (50%) of the amount paid in the current year, nor shall it be effective within twelve (12) months of any previous increase.

SECTION 2. PAYMENT. Dues shall be payable in advance to the Membership and Promotion Committee Chairman and shall cover the twelve (12) months from the date received.

SECTION 3. NONPAYMENT OF DUES. Individuals or affiliates with dues unpaid for more than sixty (60) days shall have memberships revoked.

SECTION 4. RESIGNATION AND REINSTATEMENT. Any member or affiliate with dues paid-to-date may resign membership or affiliation by written notice to the Membership and Promotion Committee Chairman without right to rebate of dues and may be reinstated in the same manner as a new member or affiliate. Any member or affiliate membership revoked for nonpayment of dues more than four (4) months may be reinstated in the same manner as a new member or affiliate.

ARTICLE V - MEETINGS AND QUORUMS

SECTION 1. ANNUAL MEETING. The annual meeting shall be held at the convention in the Fall of each year at such time and place as the Board of Directors shall determine.

SECTION 2. SPECIAL MEETINGS. Other membership meetings may be called by the Board of Directors.

SECTION 3. QUORUMS. Ten percent (10%) of the membership, with each member able to produce a membership card or who are verified to be a member from the general membership roster by the Secretary, shall constitute a quorum at a general meeting.

ARTICLE VI - OFFICERS AND THEIR DUTIES

SECTION 1. ELECTED OFFICERS. The elected officers of MAAVS and their duties shall be:

a. President shall have general superintendency of all affairs; preside at meetings, including the Board of Directors, and the Executive Committee; keep informed on all activities of the society and make reports as required; appoint committee chairmen, except the Editor of The MAAVS MEMO who is appointed by the Board of Directors; fill all vacancies in offices and committees during the term; sign all checks in the absence of the Treasurer; be a member ex officio of all committees (except the Nominating Committee); and assume other duties as necessary.

b. Vice President shall preside at meetings in the absence of the President or when called upon; sign all checks in the absence of the Treasurer and the President; succeed to the office of President in the event of a vacancy in that office during the term; and perform other duties as assigned.

c. Secretary shall record and preserve the minutes of all meetings; send a copy of the minutes to each member of the Board of Directors within four (4) weeks following each meeting; keep the official copy of the bylaws including all amendments; keep the official copy of the standing rules; maintain the membership roll; send out notices of meetings; conduct such correspondence not specifically belonging to other offices or as may be requested by the President or required by the action of the society or the Executive Board; and assume other duties relative to the office or that may be assigned.

d. Treasurer shall be responsible for the safekeeping of all funds and for the payment of all bills by checks signed by one (1) of the three (3) officers recognized by the bank(s) to sign checks; keep an accurate book record of all monies received and disbursed; render financial reports at each general meeting and as the Board of Directors may require; assist in the preparation of the annual budget; close books on December 31 and submit these for audit to the Auditing Committee appointed by the President; and assume other duties relative to the office.

SECTION 2. DIRECTORS. The Directors shall consist of one Affiliate Director appointed or elected as a representative from each of the affiliate clubs. Length of representation to be determined by the affiliate organization. Two Members-At-Large appointed by the President, one of who shall represent the Northern States and one of whom shall represent the Southern States.

SECTION 3. HISTORIAN. A Historian shall be appointed by the President to prepare and maintain an historical record of MAAVS from inception; procure photographs, reprints, and other materials deemed necessary to provide an adequate and interesting record of activities; and make a report at the annual meeting.

SECTION 4. PARLIAMENTARIAN. A Parliamentarian may be appointed by the President to serve for the term.

ARTICLE VII - NOMINATIONS AND ELECTIONS

SECTION 1. ELIGIBILITY. To be eligible to hold an elected office, the nominee shall be an active, participating member in good standing.

SECTION 2. TERMS OF OFFICE. The terms of officers shall be two (2) years or until a successor is elected. Each term shall begin at the conclusion of the annual convention at which time they were elected. No officer shall serve more than two (2) consecutive term in the same office, except the Secretary and the Treasurer, whose terms may be unlimited. Completion of thirteen (13) months in an office shall be considered a full term. The term of Affiliate Directors shall be governed by Article VI, Section 2.

SECTION 3. NOMINATIONS. Nominations for each position requiring election shall be offered at the annual meeting:

- a. By a Nominating Committee, and
- b. From the floor, the nominees being present and consenting.

SECTION 4. ELECTIONS. Elections shall be held at the annual meeting. Voting shall be by ballot except where there is only one name in nomination, in which case it may be dispensed with in favor of a viva voice vote.

SECTION 5. VACANCIES. Any position, except President, that becomes vacant as a result of a resignation in writing or removal for just cause shall be filled by appointment by the President for the remainder of the term with the consent of the Board of Directors. A person appointed to fill an affiliate's Director vacancy shall be a member of that affiliate club. Vacancy in the office of President shall be filled by automatic succession.

ARTICLE VIII - ADMINISTRATION AND MANAGEMENT

SECTION 1. BOARD OF DIRECTORS. The Board of Directors shall consist of the elected officers, Affiliate Directors, chairmen of the standing committees, and immediate Past President. The Board of Directors shall:

- a. Have and exercise authority in the management of affairs between annual meetings.
