President's Message

It is time to start thinking about our 16th Annual Convention and Show which will be a joint convention with the New York State African Violet Society. This promises to be an awesome show with many more classes than we normally have at our MAAVS conventions. Our convention will be held in Owego, New York and Sue Hoffmann will be the Show Chairman. If you like to save things until the last minute, don't forget that the convention will not be held in November, but will be held from October 26-28; so adjust your disbudding schedules accordingly. We have a wonderful theme for this year: "Violets Around the World". Hopefully many of you will be able to attend and renew the many friendships that have developed over the years.

On another note, we have just been asked to host the AVSA National Convention in 2009 or 2010. This could be a great opportunity to bring a national convention to the east coast. I would greatly appreciate any comments you may have on this issue. Please do not hesitate to call or email me.

Treasurer's Report

George McDonald, Treasurer, presented the Annual Financial Report that reflected account activity from the beginning of the year through November 8, 2005, and reported an ending balance of $7,865.78. George McDonald noted that this figure did not reflect income expected from Ways and Means and the sale of MAAVS T-shirts.

Ken Barbi read a letter from the AVSA Booster Committee thanking MAAVS for their total donation of $1,000.00 for the years 2003 and 2004. Ken Barbi also read letters of thanks from Mary Boland and Jack and Pat Wilson.

Membership

Ken Barbi reported for Sylvia Blanchard, Membership Chairman, that MAAVS currently enjoys fifteen commercial, seventeen affiliate, and one hundred twenty-seven individual/family members, giving the Society a total of one hundred fifty-nine members. He also announced that MAAVS membership pins are available at the Ways and Means table for $5.00 apiece.

Ways and Means

Jean Tippett, Ways and Means Chairman, called the Board's attention to the many items contributed by the Membership to the Ways and Means Table for raffle and auction. She announced that the drawing of raffle tickets and the auction would take place after the Saturday night banquet on November 12. Kitty Hedgepeth presented a report outlining the sale of MAAVS T-shirts (copy attached). After expenses, MAAVS enjoyed a profit of $255.79 from T-shirt sales. Awards

Susan Barbi reported that six MAAVS Collection Rosettes were awarded in 2005. She also stated that there were only four MAAVS Collection Rosettes remaining and that more would be needed for 2006. Linda Abplanalp reported that MAAVS received $1,440.00 in cash awards from members and affiliates. She also reported receiving $150.00 in gift certificates, providing a total of $1,590.00 in awards received for the 2005

Convention.

Website

Tom Glembocki noted that the $60.00 annual fee for maintaining the MAAVS website and domain name would soon be due.

Nominating Committee

Linda Abplanalp, Chairman of the Nominating Committee, reported that the Committee would have a slate of candidates to present to the membership at the General Membership Meeting on Saturday, November 12th, 2005. The slate of candidates will be as follows:

Rodney Barnett, President
Barbara Stewart, Vice-president
Jean Tippet, Secretary
George McDonald, Treasurer

After the election, installation of the newly elected officers will follow the Saturday Night Banquet on November 12. There will be a Board meeting following the installation.
2005 MAAVS Convention.

John Cook, Commercial Sales Chairman, reported that the eight commercial members attending in this year's Convention were satisfied with the space provided for their displays. Ken Barbi reported that there were 160 entries in Horticulture, 27 entries in Design, and 1 Education Table, giving a total of 188 exhibits presented by 33 exhibitors. Attending the convention were 85 members and several dogs.

2006 MAAVS Convention

Fay Wagman announced that the 2006 MAAVS convention will be a joint convention along with the New York State African Violet Society. The convention site will be Owego, New York, October 26th - 28th, 2006. She stated that volunteers would be needed for the convention.

Fay Wagman suggested that MAAVS and NYSAVS affiliates create gift baskets to benefit Ways and Means. She recommended that there be first, second, and third place awards for the best baskets donated by the affiliates. MAAVS and NYSAVS would split any ways and means profits evenly.

To encourage pre-paid reservations, members attending the 2006 convention who pre-pay their rooms will only be required to pay one half of the 14% New York State sales tax. The remaining 7% sales tax will be credited to the convention sponsors.

Fay Wagman suggested several other ways in which MAAVS and NYSAVS could benefit from Ways and Means activities. She suggested members of both societies donate wrapped gifts valued at approximately $1.00 to create a grab bag. Members purchasing a ticket for this would have their choice of any gift in the bag. There would also be the silent auction, raffle, live auction, and profit from the sale of show plants to benefit Ways and Means.

Sue Hoffmann volunteered to be Convention Chairman for 2006. The show theme will be "Violets Around the World." The Show Schedule will feature hybrids from other countries. There may be New York State classes and Canadian classes that would require an exhibitor be a member of those societies to enter. There may be a limit of six designs per exhibitor, with the exception being that any exhibitor signing up for six design classes may sign up for more if there are open classes after the design registration deadline.

Old Business

Ken Barbi reminded the Board that MAAVS dues would increase from $10.00 to $15.00 per year as of January 1, 2006. Discussion followed in which the subjects of advance payment of dues, having a time limit imposed on advance payment of dues, and creating an escrow account for advance payment of dues was addressed. Doris Brownlie moved that there be a maximum of three years allowed for any advance payment of MAAVS dues. Fay Wagman seconded the motion. The motion carried.

George McDonald questioned whether MAAVS has continued to sponsor Father Arturo's (a priest serving in the Philippines) membership in the African Violet Society of America. In the past, MAAVS sponsored Father Arturo's membership in AVSA for one year.

Doris Brownlie, Chairman of the Exploratory Committee, proposed MAAVS participate in a joint convention in 2007 with New York State African Violet Society and the African Violet Society of Southern Canada in Mississauga, Ontario (near Toronto). The proposed time for this joint convention would be the third weekend in October 2007. Discussion followed in which concerns of plant transportation across the border between the United States and Canada were addressed along with the need for passports and/or forms of identification. This proposal was tabled, to be addressed at the meeting of the incoming Board on November 12, 2005.

Fay Wagman invited MAAVS to have a joint convention with TSAVS (Tri-State African Violet Society) in Morristown, New Jersey in 2008.

New Business

After considerable discussion regarding the unprecedented hurricane damage done to AVSA Headquarters in Beaumont, Texas, Jack Wilson moved that the Board recommend making a $1,000.00 donation to the AVSA Building Maintenance Fund pending the approval of the membership at the November 12, 2005 General Membership Meeting. Fay Wagman seconded the motion. The motion carried.

Doris Brownlie moved that MAAVS donate $50.00 as an undesignated award to the AVSA 2006 convention. Jack Wilson seconded the motion. The motion carried.

The Executive Committee will meet after the Board Meeting to nominate two lifetime memberships to MAAVS for 2006.

Jack Wilson, who conducted the Judge's School at the 2005 convention, reported that there were seventeen students, many who were taking the class for the first time.

With no more new business, the meeting was adjourned.

Respectfully submitted,
Kitty Hedgepeth, Secretary

George McDonald, Treasurer, presented a Financial Report reflecting a balance of $7,865.78 for account activity from January 1, through November 8, 2005. He stated that the report does not reflect 2005 convention expenses that have yet to be paid or income from the convention that has yet to be deposited.

George McDonald gave a brief report regarding Father Auturo, an amateur botanist in the Philippines, to whom MAAVS has donated a two-year membership in AVSA.

Barbara Stewart questioned the possibility of The Membership receiving the MAAVS Memo electronically. Tom Glembocki stated that the Memo is setup to be sent via email and only needs activation. Discussion followed during which it was determined that a list of members who choose to receive their Memo electronically can be given to Ken Barbi to be removed from the physical mailing list. Barbara Stewart will announce the availability of the electronic MAAVS Memo at the Saturday night Banquet.

The 2005 Financial Report will be filed for audit.

New Business

The 2006 MAAVS Convention will be held in Owego, NY jointly with New York State African Violet Society, October 26 - 28. Owego, NY is near the border with Pennsylvania. Sue Hoffmann will serve as Show Chairman. She is looking for volunteers to fill several committee positions.

The show theme will be Violets Around The World, and will have classes featuring many countries active in African violet culture. Bill Price will be one of the speakers. Fay Wagman predicted that this would be a large show, perhaps having twenty-five more classes than the MAAVS 2005 show.

Ken Barbi announced that the African Violet Society of Canada has invited MAAVS to participate in a joint convention in 2007. Doris Brownlie moved that MAAVS have a joint convention with AVSC in 2007. Barbara McDonald second the motion. Minutes of MAAVS Executive Board Meeting November 12, 2005

The new Executive Board for MAAVS met on November 12, 2005, at 9:50 PM in the Monroe Room at the Quality Inn Hotel in Richmond, Virginia.

New members of the board are Rodney Barnett - President, Barbara Stewart - Vice President, George McDonald - Treasurer, and Jean Tippett - Secretary.

Also attending the meeting were members Doris Brownlie, Ken Barbi, Tom Glembocki, Libbie Glembocki, Linda Abplanalp, Jack Wilson, Susan Barbi, Fay Wagman and Sue Hoffmann.

Mary Boland stopped by to thank the board and show chairmen for a wonderful convention and a warm and loving welcome for her.

President Barnett thanked the group for coming. He also thanked Ken Barbi for his service as president and his many contributions to the organization.

Ken Barbi thanked all of the outgoing members of the board for their service during his presidency.

Jack Wilson brought up for discussion and then voting that some MAAVS affiliates do not belong to AVSA. There was a 2/3 affirmative vote to continue the discussion. Doris Brownlie voiced concern over AVSA affiliates having to join MAAVS to be a part of the MAAVS organization. Barbara Stewart stated there are those groups that want to join AVSA only. George McDonald suggested that we just recognize them as AVSA members. John Cook suggested requiring their AVSA number for registration at the conventions. Fay Wagman worried about telling new members they have to join AVSA and MAAVS when they join an affiliate. She was concerned about putting so many charges to a new member at one time. Linda Abplanalp suggested that we encourage new members to participate in activities, show them how great we are as a group and to slowly bring them into MAAVS. Barbara Stewart commented that she wants to see more affiliates join MAAVS. Rodney Barnett suggested putting an article in the MAAVS Memo about the benefits of being a member of AVSA.

Sue Hoffmann brought up the fact that there seems to be a number of charter members missing from the membership photo album. This album is brought to every convention and shared with the membership in the hospitality room. Tom Glembocki asked why a photo album was necessary especially with all of the new technology that we now use. Ken Barbi responded that it was a hard copy of past conventions that can be shared and held by all members at the conventions. Ken Barbi told us that he does know who the charter members are and that he will update the information. Fay Wagman said she had received a list of the charter members from Sylvia Blanchard in 2002. It was brought up that if a charter member fails to pay their dues, they are no longer a member. The Historian usually compiles the information for the album.

Tom Glembocki has asked that anyone with any news that could be used on the website be sent to him. There have been occasions when the news was a little slim and not enough articles for the site. We need to send as much information to Tom as possible.

Fay Wagman told the board that the badges for the 2006 convention will carry the name of the convention. They will also be providing T-shirts for sale.

Libbie Glembocki informed us that the 2007 convention has a show chairman, Marie Burns, and Libbie Glembocki and David Dick have agreed to be co-chairs. Sites suggested for the convention were Charlottesville, Va. or Harrisonburg, Va. The Shenandoah Valley was also strongly suggested. The question was raised whether the President was supposed to appoint the convention chair and then the appointed chair was responsible for appointing the convention committee's. No answer is noted.

Sue Hoffmann thanked Linda Abplanalp for being the awards chairman at this years convention and for all of the work she had done. Sue Hoffmann informed us that Linda Abplanalp would not be assuming these duties next year. Sue Hoffmann asked all of us to make inquires for a new awards chair. George McDonald suggested Janet Riemer. Barbara Stewart asked Linda Abplanalp how she requested donations for the cash awards. Linda Abplanalp stated she asked for undesignated so that the money could be more evenly distributed. But if money was sent with a specific designation, that was were the money was placed.

Jean Tippett was asked if the proceeds from Ways and Means had been counted. Jean Tippett responded that the money had not been counted before the board meeting. Linda Abplanalp praised Jack Wilson for the job he did as our auctioneer. Because of Jack Wilson, we were able to raise much more money.

Libbie Glembocki of Bluebird Greenhouse will be the representative for George McDonald's plants.

With no more business, President Rodney Burnett moved to adjourn the meeting and Jack Wilson seconded. The meeting was adjourned at 10:25 PM.

Respectively Submitted,
Jean V. Tippett, Secretary

Financial Summary 2005

Our financial situation is sound. It's even better when we compare it to 2004, with our income up and our expenses down.

	2004	2005
TOTAL INCOME	$ 9,968.78	$11,838.56
TOTAL EXPENSES	$13,322.47	$11,187.22
Beginning balance	$ 8,224.38	$ 4,870.69
Ending balance	$ 4,870.69	$ 5,718.55
Difference	- (3,353.69)	+ $651.34

We have increased our dues beginning January 1, 2006, so our income from dues should increase slightly. Guidelines from 2005 should easily get us through 2006.

Please notice the figures from the Ways and Means committee. They received almost $360 in seed money, and gave us back over $1850. So you can see where our profit from last year came from. I am sure that we all are grateful for their hard work for MAAVS. In actuality, it is always awesome to be around so many people, many working behind the scenes, who make MAAVS such a great organization! It is a joy to work with you. Grace and Peace, George McDonald
